ABSINTHE

AUSTRIA

Mata Hari Absinthe Bohemian

Viennese Bohemian absinthe. Reduced aniseed results in an absinthe without the dominant licorice taste. (AUS, 120°) 14

FRANCE

Absinthe de Vichy

Light and refreshing; ideal absinthe for beginners. Gripping botanicals for the more experienced. (FRA, 90°) 15

Absinthe Roquette 1797

Brought back to life from an unpublished manuscript dating from the 18th century. (FRA, 150°) 18

Absinthe Libertine 55

Mellow and with a light aniseed flavor, it is a prim and proper absinthe. Very original. (FRA, 110°) 16

Absinthe Jade L'Esprit d'Edouard

In the 19th C, Pernod crafted premiere absinthe. Based on samples drawn from pre-ban bottles. (FRA, 144°) 18

Absinthe François Guy

Produced from a recipe a century old. This spirit won three golds times at the Absinthiades. (FRA, 90°) 16

Absinthe Libertine 68 Amer

Savory and bitter thanks to grand wormwood. Medalist at the 2004 Absinthiades in Pontarlier. (FRA, 136°) 15

Absinthe Absinthe Amer 72

A perfumed absinthe, powerful and full of aniseed flavors. Bronze medalist at the 2004 Concours International des Eaux de Vie de Fruits in Metz (International Contest of Fruit Brandies). (FRA, 144°) 15

Absinthe Blanchette

Replica of an ancient absinthe; fruity flavors of fennel & grand wormwood. Awarded the Cuillère d'Or at the 2006 Absinthiades in Pontarlier and the silver medal at the International Wine & Spirits Competition. (FRA, 120°) 18

La Maison Fontaine Blanche

The most decorated blanche absinthe. Sweet and refreshing taste characterized by rich floral notes with hints of lemon and mint. (FRA, 112°) 16

Lucid

A traditional, French-made absinthe verte. (FRA, 124°) 12

La Muse Verti

Grande wormwood brings out the fresh bitterness, but it really is the secret blending with the other plants that gives it a perfect balance. (FRA, 136°) 12

SPAIN

Absinthe Túnel Cannabis

High-proof hemp flavored. With marijuana and wormwood extracts and startling anise flavor. (SPA, 160°) 16

Absinthe Diable Noir

Very high in alcohol. Lightly bitter. Best served over ice. (SPA, 85°) 16

Absinthe Philippe Lasala

Fruity and refreshing; a favorite in Spain. (SPA, 100°) 13

GERMANY

Absinthe Maldoror

The first blended absinthe. Gold Medalist at Absinthiades 2010. (GER, 133.2°) 14

SWITZERLAND

Absinthe Angelique Verte Suisse

A full flavour and complex aromatic palate. Something a bit different. Slightly more bitter than a traditional Swiss absinthe. (SUI, 136°) 18

Absinthe Marianne La Clandestine

Awarded gold medals at the 2005, 2006, 2007 and 2008 Absinthiades. This is one of the first absinthes to be distilled in the Val-de-Travers, the cradle of absinthe distillation. (SUI, 110°) 18

Kubler

Swiss clear or 'La Bleue' distilled in the Val-de-Travers region of Switzerland also known as the birthplace of absinthe using the same traditional method that has been employed for more than 100 years. (SUI, 106°) 12

Absinthe Obstinee

Oak-barrel-aged absinthe verte. Slightly bitter, busty, little aniseed. Intense in color and flavor. (SUI, 124°) 22

UNITED STATES

St. George Absinthe Verte

Made from an array of botanical ingredients, infused with brandy to create a highly spirituous, herbal elixir. Best sipped neat or lightly louched. (USA, 120°) 14

Vieux Carre

Louching creates a dynamic opalescence & the complexity of each herbal layer comes to fruition. (USA, 120°) 10
